

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

HB 1696 – SB 1762

January 29, 2016

SUMMARY OF BILL: Redefines the powers of the Board of Trustees of the University of Tennessee system (UT Board of Trustees or Board) to include: employing a chief executive officer of the University of Tennessee system who shall also serve as the president of the system; defining the president's duties; establishing the salaries and terms of employment of the president, administrative personnel, professors, teachers, and other officers and employees of the system or the individual institutions.

Authorizes the UT Board of Trustees to remove the President, chief executive officers of the Tennessee system institutions, or any other officer or employee of the system or institution.

Requires the Board to receive the recommendation of the President prior to the dismissal of a Chief Executive Officer of an institution and grants the Board the final authority to make such decisions. The chief executive officers of the system institutions shall report directly to the President of the system. Authorizes the President of the University of Tennessee to appoint a general advisory committee with approval of the UT Board of Trustees and removes the power from the Governor. Authorizes the Board, rather than the President of the University of Tennessee, to appoint the Executive Director of the Institute for Public Service.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumption:

- No change in number of employees of the University of Tennessee system or its member institutions.
- No change in salary, benefits, or other compensation for University of Tennessee system or member institution employees.
- No change in the composition of the UT Board of Trustees.
- The Board will exercise the powers granted to it by this bill in the normal course of business.
- No fiscal impact on state government.

HB 1696 – SB 1762

CERTIFICATION:

The information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in dark ink that reads "Krista M. Lee". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

Krista M. Lee, Executive Director

/rbp